Just Dance tournament.

Shoutcasters are the esports version of commentators. You need to have a good understanding of the game being played if you are going to be able to shoutcast for the tournament.

Watch the video of the ESWC Just Dance finals. Write down in the space below, the kinds of things the shoutcasters talk about in their commentary.

Just Dance shoutcasting features

Just Dance tournament.

Hosts introduce the tournament, explain how it will work and introduce each of the competitors to the people watching. Complete the worksheet below with the information you will need to introduce the Just Dance tournament school finals and then write the script for this introduction.
